Being with out you has turned ot to be so inconvenient
And wishig I was with you just seems to use up all my time
You've been gone so long that it's hard to recall
Just how the dream went
And all but this broken heart in me I guess is doing fine

Chorus:

Is it sill over, are we still through Since my phone still ain't ringing I assume It still ani't you
I've half a mind to take the time to find somebody new
But I'm not too sure that I'm still over you

That lie that I tried to slip by you
Was told with good intentions
It was just another way to say I love you
And protect you from the truth Half a pound of cure is surel worth a half an ounce of pure prevention
And trying to explaine while I'm insane
Is th Hardest thing I've ever tried to do

Chours

If I repeat myself it's cause I've nothing else to do
And I'm not too sure that I'm still over you
