There's a stranger in my mirror
Who don't know how to behave
He keeps grinnin' 'bout you and whistilin' tunes
While he ought to be watchin' me shave

We move alike and we look the same
But I swear we've got totally different brains
And the love we're in with you just makes it clear
He used to be my twin, now there's a stranger in my mirror

And he doesn't want to go out drinkin'
With all of his friends no more
He's got both of us thinkin'
You're what we're livin' for

We've gone crazy and we can't recover
You're always on one mind or the other
I admit we should be certified
He's a little schizophrenic and so am I

There's a stranger in my mirror
Who don't know how to behave
He keeps grinnin' 'bout you and whistilin' tunes
While he ought to be watchin' me shave

We move alike and we look the same
But I swear we've got totally different brains
And the love we're in with you just makes it clear
He used to be my twin, now there's a stranger in my
mirror

And he's always doin' little things
I never thought I'd do
Like lookin' at diamond rings
Drawin' hearts and writin' I love you

Thought it was just a case of mild affection
Until I caught a glimpse of my reflection
I looked up into my own eyes and saw Someone startin' back I didn't recognize

There's a stranger in my mirror
Who don't know how to behave
He keeps grinnin' 'bout you and whistlin' tunes
While he ought to be watchin' me shave

We move alike and we look the same
But I swear we've got totally different brains
And the love we're in with you just makes it clear
He used to be my twin, now there's a stranger in my
mirror

Lord, I'm in love with you
And there's a stranger in my mirror
