There's a dirty piece of cardboard

That reads Montgomery Ward

Taped across the window

Of my old Ford

A six pack on the front seat

And a box of chicken wings

I'm dialing 'cross the radio

For a song that I can sing

(chorus)

I'd better change my wandering ways

I know I've seen my better days

Always getting high when I get low

Well I left my soul out in the rain

Lord, what a price I've had to pay

Storms of life are washing me away

An old mail pouch, tobacco sign

Fading on the barn

Bringing back sweet memories of Mama's farm

When love was just a country girl

That lived on down the road

You know, she almost had me turned around

But that was years ago

(repeat chorus)

Yeah, the storms of life are washing me away
