Tonight we're gonna tear down the walls
We're gonna laugh and drink and dance and have a ball

The good times ain't over after all
And tonight we're gonna tear down the walls
It seems we let the hard times come between us
Like a wall around our hearts we couldn't see
Hard luck and trouble came rainin' down upon us
They almost got the best of you and me

Once we loved to stay at home and make love
Now work is all we ever seem to do
We been spendin' too much time makin' money
I think it's time we had a laugh or two

Tonight we're gonna tear down the walls
We're gonna laugh and drink and dance and have a
ball

The good times ain't over after all
And tonight we're gonna tear down the walls
It seems we let the hard times come between us
Like a wall around our hearts we couldn't see
Hard luck and trouble came rainin' down upon us
They almost got the best of you and me

You put your party clothes and makeup
And I'll polish that ol' truck until it shines
Don't worry 'bout a thing 'til monday mornin'
Just leave hard luck and troubles far behind...
('cause)

Tonight we're gonna tear down the walls
We're gonna laugh and drink and dance and have a
ball

The good times ain't over after all
And tonight we're gonna tear down the walls

The good times ain't over after all
And tonight we're gonna tear down the walls
