Glorified nigga, sure to ride nigga
Smoking on cigars, mixing four or five liquors I horrify niggas 'cause they scared of what they don't know
Real street nigga, drink them row, go Legendary nigga, y'all is minuscule

I brought the street corner to your living room
I guess these niggas thought that I'd be finished soon Remember rating all those freestyles, drinking in my room
Baby momma talking about a due date I'm in the zone, writing for a clue tape
Get your truths straight, make the booth shake Spitting pain like a nigga had a toothache
They used to say this nigga wouldn't live a 30
But I lifted and I did it, best believe I did it dirty Best believe I did it Jersey, I don't think y'all niggas heard me
Y'all niggas stay up, we gonna get our wait up This the type of shit that fucking legends will be made of

I came up from the basement, bitches wouldn't date
him Niggas wouldn't face him, a legend in the making Fuck a falling star, niggas fed them to the ages
My head is to the pavement, my legend in the making
I came up from the basement, bitches wouldn't date
him
Niggas wouldn't face him, a legend in the making
Fuck a falling star, niggas fed them to the ages
My head is to the pavement, my legend in the making

Niggas tell me every day that I ain't what I used to be I tell 'em that I hope so, but you don't see the growth, though
Got 'em in a chokehold, niggas ain't used to me One or two was legendary but niggas ain't used to three Ha, you that nigga that's news to me

Last time I checked thought y'all niggas was using me Then get your little buzz up, now you ain't giving love up
So tough luck, I talked to the streets and they choosing me

I came up from the basement, bitches wouldn't date
him
Niggas wouldn't face him, a legend in the making
Fuck a falling star, niggas fed them to the ages
I came up from the basement, bitches wouldn't date
him
Niggas wouldn't face him, a legend in the making
Fuck a falling star, niggas fed them to the ages
My head is to the pavement, my legend in the making
