I know that you're leavin'
As soon as the sun comes through the window
There's no talkin' this over
The damage is done

There's just too much hurt
And too much to forgive
Oh, but we both know
We weren't always like this

Help me remember
The way that we used to be
When nothin' else mattered
'Cause you were in love with me

Just for the night, one last time
One more good memory
When I look back
That's what I wanna see
Oh, help me remember

Those days that were so good
Those nights that we held, held on forever
When we weren't pretenders
We were as real as we felt

Oh, I don't want to fight anymore
I don't want the last thing I hear tonight
To be a slammin' door
Baby, let it be like before

Help me remember
The way that we used to be
When nothin' else mattered
'Cause you were in love with me

Oh, just for the night, one last time
One more good memory
When I look back
That's what I wanna see

This could be the last time

I look in your eyes

Help me remember
The way that it used to be
When nothin' else mattered
'Cause you were in love with me

Help me remember
Help me remember
Help me remember
