7:42 in the morning, 8 seconds before it all sinks in.
Put your best face on for the world and fake another Smile and just pretend. But your just puttin off the pain, nothings ever really going to change.

Chorus:

So let it hurt, let it be, let it take you right down to your knees, let it burn to the worst degree. May not be what you want, but its what you need. Sometimes the only way around it, is to let love do its work and let it hurt. Yea let it hurt

3:28 in the morning. Counting up the spaces between the rain. You're getting use to the rocks at the bottom, your heart goes numb but the lonely stays the same. And

Thats price your bound to pay, and theres nothing really nothing anyone can say. Oh theres only just one way

Chorus

Yea let it out Yea let it hurt

You might just find your better for it, when you let go
And you, and you let let it hurt, let it bleed, let it take you right done to your knees.

Hey...sometimes the only way around it, is to let love Do its work, let love do its work, so go on, go on and let it hurt, let it burn

Chorus

7:42 in the morning, 8 seconds before it all sinks in
