Well ya can't eat, can't sleep, down on the floor
Cuz you've never felt this hard before
Now there's nothing in this world ya want more
Than to be free
And you're lost somewhere you swore you'd never go
And the way back looks like a dead end road but with one step, one breath, one smile at a time
Let me get you out of here
Wipe away all your tears
Now you're safe in these arms of mine
I won't ever let you down
Your heart will start to come around
We're gonna change your life
One sunrise at a time
Well you can't get rid of all his lies
Thinking 'bout him all the time
Can I be the reason you've got nothing on your mind?
Let me get you out of here
Wipe away all your tears
Now you're safe in these arms of mine
I won't ever let you down
Your heart will start to come around
We're gonna change your life
One sunrise at a time
Let me hold you tight all through the night
'Til you awake
'Til all this pain is gone with yesterday
Ooh let me get you out of here
I won't ever let you down
Your heart will start to come around
We're gonna change your life
One sunrise at a time
