Everybody needs it
Everybody wants it
Everybodys searching for someone
Been down a thousand highways
I never thought would end
Baby, Ive been

Waiting all my life to find you
Always been one step behind you
Your love babe
Ive been waiting all my life

I was tired of waiting
Every night was praying
Everyday would be the day Id find you
I grew so impatient, how long would it take
To know you were out there somewhere
Somewhere waiting, wondering just like me

Ive been waiting all my life to love you
All that time I was dreaming of you

Your love babe
Ive been waiting all my life

And did I lose faith, did I lose heart
Maybe I did, but I never lost my way
To where you are - Ive been

Waiting all my life to find you
Always been one step behind you
Your love babe
Ive been waiting all my life

Ive been waiting all my life to love you
All that time I was dreaming of you
Your love babe
Ive been waiting all my life

Your love Ive been waiting
Your love Ive been waiting all my life

All my life, all my life
