Talk hours, no power
Hard times to find we'll build the tower
Let's thick on the light
Start to make it right

Don't let it make you a misery
Takes someone shake you trust me on this
It will break you mind from soul
And then you're in a hole

So don't give in to that stuff anymore
'Cause I'm right here

I decree for you and me
Something must start give in
I know it's hard
But we'll soon start living
I decree for you and me
Something must start give in
I know it's hard
But we'll soon start living
Soon start living

It seems was in the middle of the night so 'llright
Now's not the time you'll fight
Go back to bed
Let the dread spread
So much comes wishing not when you're stressed
Unless when your head gets missed
You come to me
And set the demon free

So don't give in to that stuff anymore
'Cause I'm right here

I decree for you and me
Something must start give in
I know it's hard
But we'll soon start living
I decree for you and me
Something must start give in

I know it's hard
But we'll soon start living
Soon start living

So don't give in to that stuff anymore
'Cause I'm right here

I decree for you and me
Something must start give in
I know it's hard
But we'll soon start living
I decree for you and me
Something must start give in
I know it's hard
But we'll soon start living
Soon start living
