i know, i've not been easy to live with i guess that i can say the same about you but i've been around just long enough to learn that nothing in this life's for free so remember when you're down and out baby you can still count on me

(ref)look at me now
through the good times and the bad i'll never stop believing in what we have
i said to myself; keep trying
and that's what i'm gonna do as long as i have you

i can't tell you about tomorrow i can't even swear about today but i know that i'm not solving any problems by running away

so here i stand, not knowing what to say i need to love you, in my own strange way and this far down the line it's time for me to say;
i'm here to stay

(ref)look at me now

and heart to heart, we can start all over it's just a matter of trying i was trying to hide, i was running for cover when our love was dying look at me now...
