days are endless and nights are longer and this doubt inside keeps growing stronger will you learn to appreciate it turns out to a be a bit too late all the love that i just didn't see 'til you walked away from me would you believe that it's true that i still reach out for you

how i wish you were here

(ref)if you could see... the way i feel deep inside if you could see... the many ways i've tried if you could see... me now god knows what you got out of me seems i always was emptyhanded and maybe the way you saw me change gave you the feeling of being stranded thoughts are spinning in my head so much left unsaid

oh i i promised myself not to build my hopes too high now i realize, i've lost the reason why
