There's no sense in me saying that life doesn't matter
It doesn't matter, it never mattered
Well I have Sunday so maybe we'll finish this chapter
I can't ever finish this chapter
And now at this moment I don't know what else to think
There's no sense in me saying "I guess I still miss you"

(So now I see things in faces examine the suspects)
(Get the d out your mouth)
(You'll tell everyone that "it's so much fun")
(Say to all my friends it never ends)
(While were driving through all the alleyways)
(We picked up some happiness on the way)

I'll tell everyone that it's so much fun
Say to all your friends "it never ends"
While we're driving through all the alley ways
I picked up some happiness on the way

Just because you move your hips
Doesn't mean that you exist
Just because you move your lips
Doesn't mean that you exist
Can we just take a fucking break
Cause I feel like I've got nothing left
Nothing left

I guess I still miss you
Oh well it's me and you
What else should we do
But talking's for functioning people
I guess I still miss you
But talking's for functioning people
I guess I still miss you whoaaaa

You'd always say we'll win the lottery someday
So I wouldn't have to go away
I should have known that I'd had it all along
But I didn't know til' you were gone

(Let's see you function now)
(Touch your nose, jump around)

(Footprints, in God we trust)
(Jes-you, Jes-me, Jesus)
(Pick up ten sac, orange crush)
(Two bottle, cups and blunts)
(What do scorn lovers do?)
(Dancing with all my crew)
(Drink and drive life away)
(Gamble with everyday)

Just because you move your hips
Doesn't mean that you exist
Just because you move your lips
Doesn't mean that you exist
Can we just take a fucking break
Cause I feel like I got nothing left

I guess I still miss you
Oh well it's me and you
What else should we do
But talking's for functioning people
I guess I still miss you
But talking's for functioning people
I guess I still miss you whoaaaa

You'd always say we'll win the lottery someday
So I wouldn't have to go away
I should have known that I'd had it all along
But I didn't know til' you were gone

[x2]
You'd always say we'll win the lottery someday
So I wouldn't have to go away
