[X2]

I threw her away on the second we met
I couldn't have lied, I tried
I was cashing a check
(The ink was smeared)
(The lines were drawn and scribbled unclear)
(A cancellation, it's time to learn to fly)

Now that I've decided that you can't be
Now that I've decided that you can't be trusted
Now that I've decided that you can't be
Now that I've decided that you can't be trusted
Now that I've decided that you can't be
Now that I've decided that you can't be

One by one (Wasn't that fun)
This party dies (Fade away)
Late night phone calls that end in surprise

I can't believe you would give up your dignity (Fade away)
Just to take a ride with me
And how does it feel to be used
Climb in the back seat
Like luggage

[X2]

Whores don't trip
They bleed on the tapestry
Whores don't trip
They bleed at the bar

It's your persistence that makes me sick
It's not the sight of your kind
And now I am so faint, caught up in just this way
I know that you can be more than this
This wasn't what I wanted
You said I sewed that dream alive
Climb farther into hate, is it this back seat making you itch?
Morals become something from a dream
This isn't the way to blow off steam

Inside of your head

Give up this is making me sick
My patience is wearing thin
I will be leaving you now
Stay away for long

Drag his body down to the mill
(Stationed wit, I believe you're doing alright)
Cut the ice with counterfeit bills
I'll take my share
(Stationed wit, I believe you're doing alright)
Like lightning bolts that strike down in pairs
(Stationed wit, I believe you're doing alright)

This is all justified
This is all justified
(Stationed wit, I believe I believe you're doing alright)
Step aside and watched the lie
This is all justified
(Stationed wit, I believe I believe you're doing alright)
This is all justified
(Stationed wit, I believe I believe you're doing alright)
Won't heal in time
(Stationed wit, I believe I believe you're doing alright)
This is all justified now

Now we're all afraid to see why we can't give it up
But now your shirt comes off
I need something more tonight
Lend your word
