Sunrise wake up stand up look into red eyes
Stayed up all night thinking of reasons why I can't feel your skin
Is this plaguing your brain?
Couldn't brace yourself in the morphine hallway
Lying on the ground with a heart as a ball and chain
Message to the bird I know your wings will be fine
Spread them on the floor, learn to heal with take time
Close the hatch and lock us inside.
Now breath in wide
I'll forgive you later
Come on it's time
Just stand aside
All these reason why
I am reaching wide
I am sticking to all these one liners
And all this means
And all I have to say

(Whispers)
Stay till my word
Because I can send you to the side

Cut off these ties
Till this is why
We were holding to one night
Breath in without love
Hear me form these lines
Falling in love
I have been reading lies.

Watch this turn to dust, I wont know when you've fallen
Now it all takes shape, I wont go until you follow
[[Couldn't brace yourself in the morphine hallway

X2 I don't even get the movie
Cold ice feels so soothing x2
Watch this turn to dust, I won't know when you've fallen
Now it all takes shape, I won't go until you follow

I don't feel anything, stuck in the passing lane
Break, wait, stop, back off the bitch
Block out the sound of the police beckoning
Duck in the back and the lights will shut off again
You can go for it just don't ignore it
Ration the wine, laughing in revelry
You can go for it just don't ignore it
Caution I'm drugged, we'll here comes the symphony
The rapist gives God a hug.
