Please, girl, stay 'til the early mornin'.
We can have some coffee.
You can do my laundry.
Please, girl, stay.
Don't mind the clutter.
Get back to bed, yeah.
Mickey mouse covers look good on your body.
Please, girl, stay.
Oh darlin'
Please, girl, stay.
Oh sugar
Please, girl, stay.
'Til the early mornin'.

And I'm not really sure what we did last night,
So let's explore each others minds.
And I know that you can find the time.
Indulge me.

Your cherry lips linger on mine.
I took the plum right from the vine.
Oh girl, I wouldn't waste your time.
Indulge me.

(Please, girl, stay..)
And I'm not really sure what we did last night,
So let's explore each others minds.
And I know that you can find the time.
Indulge me.

All along the watchtower.
They'll be singing the song forever.
All along the watchtower.
They'll be singing the song forever.

One day, you'll see what it means to bleed.
One day, you'll see what it means
