Won the battle, so now buy me clothes
Let's make believe that we're better off alone

Well, it's me, I implore
I store smiles down in the basement
Even in a perfect world, we could not breathe
Now I'm choosing my battles
(We could not breathe)
Now I'm herding the cattle
Now I'm choosing my battles
I am the sow

You remind me of someone...
You remind me of someone else
You remind me of someone...
You remind me of someone else

We could not get up here
The stairs have collapsed on top of us
No one said it was my responsibility
Well, I'll get this done
We are up on our backs
Helpless, in fact, but slowly moving

Nine to five, we slave for people that are underage I'm slowly moving, I'm slowly moving Oh, it's the best feeling, thinking of your new goals in life
And I never wanted this to happen, but it always does

It's so funny when you speak of love so fluently
(I saved the gats for you and I) You have ruined me

Decide

When will this end?
I saved the gats for you and I
(When will this end?)
Decide

We've got to save the weekends for getting our minds blown out

We've got to find the best way for shutting their fucking mouths
(When will this end? When will this fucking end?)
Well, Judgment Day is Tuesday, so get your rabbit foot out

Won the battle, so now buy me clothes
Let's make believe that we're better off alone
Well, it's me, I implore
I store smiles down in the basement
Even in a perfect world, we could not breathe

It's like we've never felt so...
(I'll drive the boat, I'll drive the boat)
It's like we've never felt so...
(I'll drive the boat, I'm arming the laser)
It's like we never felt so...
(Never felt so great, never felt so gold)
It's like we never felt so...
Felt so..
Felt so...

Gold, it hurts
(So...)
Diamond flavor
