Tumbling against walls of stone
The frozen hand of nothingness breaks my mind
Echoes fill the air
Arcades filled with silence
Crazed eyes follow my stars
Locked in halls of solitude
Exitless rooms, paths without end
End my pain
Useless days increase the burden of time
Prayin for release
Stonecast faces stare at me
Every day another scar
I don't see summer's sun,
Break these chains
My senses numb
Dark is my tomb
I don't feel autumn rain, I don't see winter's snow,
Blind are my eyes
I don't feel rising spring,
Burden of time
