If you could would you go and lock the door?
If you could would you crawl along the floor?
Would you give in to what I know you want?
Or will you leave alone tonight?

If I asked would you wanna walk me home?
Would I be safer if I was alone?
I wish I could tell you what I want from you
I would if I knew

I want you more
More than I ever thought I would
I want you more
More than I ever should

On the days when you act like you don't care
Well I know you, so wipe that icy stare off your face
I know it's all a game with you
What else can you do?

Do you know that I think of you in bed?
And that sometimes I wish you were dead?
I'd be better off if you were gone
But will it ever really be done?

I want you more
More than I ever thought I would
I want you more
More than I ever should

Do you think that you'll ever walk away?
It might make it easier that way
Well go on I dare you try to walk away
And think about this today

Have you got it clearly in your mind?
Get it straight because you're gonna find
That by the time you turn around it's too late
And I won't be found

I want you more
More than I ever thought I would

I want you more
More than I ever should

I want you more
More than I ever thought I would
I want you more
More than I ever, more than I ever should
