There's a photo book that can tell you countless things of me

So many memories, I remember every one of them
One look and the moment comes right back to me

I can see it clearly, all the details right in front of me
And all so heavenly, every story, every moment
Playing back just like it's on a movie screen

It's all there
It's all there in the pictures, it's all there in the pictures
Capture pieces of my life like a voyage into time
It's all there

It's all there in the pictures, it's all there in the pictures
All the faces, all the places, my gentle memories
It's all there

I remember this like it happened just moments ago
My laughter wouldn't cease like escaping into history
Quiet little voyage of a memory

It amazes me to see what has come of me
Still but yet in motion, worth a thousand words or even millions more
It's right here

It's all there in the pictures, it's all there in the pictures
Capture pieces of my life like a voyage into time
It's all there

It's all there in the pictures, it's all there in the pictures
All the faces, all the places, my gentle memories
It's all there

Flipping through the pages are the many stages, different ages
As time passes by life flashes right in front of me, who'd have guessed
The things that were to come from reflections of what used to be

Still but yet in motion, worth a thousand words or even million more
It's right here

It's all there in the pictures, it's all there in the pictures
Capture pieces of my life like a voyage into time
It's all there

It's all there in the pictures, it's all there in the pictures
All the faces, all the places, my gentle memories
It's all there

It's all there in the pictures, it's all there in the pictures
Capture pieces of my life like a voyage into time
It's all there

It's all there in the pictures, it's all there in the pictures
All the faces, all the places, my gentle memories
It's all there
