I can feel the anger grow
Deep inside my body
Just a little aching spot
Where my organs have been rotting

Everything is getting worse
The hate infects my soul
Right now the time's run out
And it starts all over again

All these idiots drive me insane
Treating me like air

They don't even know my name

Hate has taken control
Of my conscious action
Driven by this evil power
I swear I'll lose it all

There is still no end in sight
I think I'll lose this game
I am still fighting with myself
To get it all in gear
