Murk of ravens land, Realms of the unend Approach let sunset end, Forewords to crimson night at hand
Call winter mist on grand black eminent announced a stead
Benight where seasons fall blinded in storms at feet
And reign with glory our land of grim and Honor
Thus ye enthroned ravenly on ground of own
Held by the name of biting rime

Remnant recall before eons in time
As storm awake the oceans from the sleep
Vanquish day light burn darkness deep
ENSLAVE!
Northland in hearts grinding souls as thunder rise
Son of raven murk defeat everlast demise
Offspring re-force conquering mountains through ice
Nordic on course, awaiting riders, invaders of beings

Mist entrance brought us in miniature dark embrace Immortal souls with eyes staring at falls Guardians at gates we stand, guarding against the damned
Hereafter cosmic winds, darkened storms she brings Towards the endless road that leads to home we rode Years on path, we shall walk until we pass

Ranked as raven glorious art thy wings
Apparel of Empire sword, of dark knights, of kings
Verily thou art the Cesar of all
Enrage the veins with vengeance and blitzkrieg shock
Never ending grimness sparking in gloomy eyes
