

Ravens Throne "Ravenous"

A blindness through total darkness, rotten coffin embracing dust
Infinity of death insanity, brutality to rip the guts Desirefull thought as hunger for flesh and bones goes more Hanging corps on rusty hook to taste the smell to hear the worms
Raped carcass laying naked discharging burning lust Embryonic body was fed its own heart Ravenous ravens swallowing vomit, crunching skulls of dying men
A dissected liver was bitten row monstrously, when the brain was taken fresh And fed to the most aggressive reptile.

The thirst for blood theory
The thirst for blood theory, explosion of vein volcano
