I'm a master, I'm a prodigy

Don't trust your eyes 'cause it's not what you see

I'll take away your pain and free your mind

You will never be the last in line

I promise you freedom, the heaven on earth

Destroy the oppression, create a rebirth

Follow my call - to the metal war

Follow my call - to the metal war

Follow my call - to the metal war

Follow my call

Metal gives you power to survive

Break down the wall and fight for your life

Protect your home against the evil might

I'll guide you through the battle side by side

And even the angel of death will appear

The bible of metal will kill your fear

Follow my call - to the metal war

Follow my call - to the metal war

Follow my call - to the metal war

Follow my call

Follow my call - to the metal war

Follow my call - to the metal war

Follow my call - to the metal war

Follow my call - to the metal war

Follow my call

To the metal war

To the metal war

To the metal war

To the metal war
