I've got my wires crossed again
I keep forgetting that I'm human
That I have these hands
That I can touch you with

Where did I put my clothes?
I wrapped you in them to keep you warm
Then I found them on the side of the road

I've been swinging off of power lines
Hoping that I can find you
Swinging off of power lines...

I wish I wish
That I was electric
I wish I wish
I was a machine
Never did I wish my heart would stop beating
But then I wouldn't have to feel it

I wish I wish
That I was electric
I wish I wish
That I could have been
The only one to keep your heart still beating
With my electricity

How did I let you in?
What the hell was I thinking?
Because now you're underneath my skin
How do I rip you out?

How did we get so cold?
When your touch used to be so warm
Now all you have is your own

You're opening umbrellas on my insides
You're losing your crown
You're opening umbrellas on my insides
Like anchors they're weighing me down
Weighing me down
