Tears fell this morning
As I thought of the good old days
Somebody tell me
I've got to know, is this the end,
Cause I've lost everything
I have no friends

But it's no use crying
No use crying
No use crying

When I was young
And things were going my way
Had I thought of the future
I would not be in this shape today
Somebody please tell me
I've got to know, is this the end,
Cause I've lost everything
I have no friends

I'm tryin to tell you it's no use crying
No use crying
No use crying

So people, don't be no sleepers
Take my advice
Opportunity never knocks twice
Here today
Tomorrow it's gone away
And you've lost everything
And you have no friends

But it's no use crying
No use crying
No use crying
