If you're feeling lowdown
Don't have a soul to care
If you're feeling lowdown
You don't have a soul to care
Just grab your hat
And start for the rocking chair

There's Dubonnet Judy, Gin Fizz Flo
Cocktail Shorty and old Julip Joe

I'm telling you
It's the gonnest place in town
If you don't have your rubbers
You can take a taxi down

If you're a regular guy
You're bound to get a souvenir
If you're a regular guy
You're bound to get a souvenir
And when you write back home
You can say you're spooning at the rocking chair
