When I try to go to sleep and know that I won't lie awake and cry
Then I'll be over you

When I wake up in the morning and I find that you're not on my mind
Then I'll be over you

If the time should arrive
when I feel alive once again
when each beat of my heart says it's time to start again

When I close my eyes to sleep in someone's warm embrace
and I don't see your face
Then I'll be over you

If the time should arrive
when I feel alive once again
when each beat of my heart says it's time to start again

When I close my eyes to sleep in someone's warm
embrace
and I don't see your face
Then I know I'll be over you
