Oh, there were bells on a hill, yeah
And I never heard 'em ringing
I, I never heard them at all, oh
Till there was you, baby, oh no, oh, no, no

There were birds in the sky
And I never saw them winging, winging
Out at night I never saw them at all
Till there was you

Then there was music
And there was wonderful roses
Y'all tell me that it's sweet fragrant meadows
Of dawn and dew

There was love, the thing got all around me
And I never heard it singin, oh, singin'
Out at night I never heard anything at all
Till there was you

Then there was music
And wonderful roses
Didn't I say, they tell me in sweet fragrant meadows
Of dawn and dew

Yes, there was love and it got all around me, baby
And I never heard it singin' , oh, singin'
Out at night, I never heard it at all
Till there was you
