Well I've been down now
Like I never got started
Guess you want your world just a certain way
And I can tell you this
I've been outsmarted
And that hurts me more than it hurts me, how much I
miss

I find that I'm spent
I never regret it
And I said things that I know right now I never meant
Well I've been down now
Guess you want your world just a certain way
Well I've been down now
Guess you want your world just a certain way
Well I've been down now
Like I never got started
Guess you want your world just a certain way
And I can tell you this
I've been outsmarted
And that hurts me more than it hurts me, how much I
miss

Well I've been down now
Well I've been down now
Well I've been down now
Well I've been down now
