I'll take the blame
If I ever want to
For what my little brain
Has been through
I know I say
Things I never meant to
To seem a little more sane
Cause thats what it takes
If I ever could win
If I ever could see
If I just could ever
Remember to think
About anything
Darling, give me a rope
I'll hang my self
It doesnt take a genius
To figure it out
Dont have to be fucking brilliant to see
Im not as smart as I seem to be
Im not as bright as I used to be
Im not as sharp as I think I am
Im not as smart as I seem
Im not as bright as I seem

Darling darling darling
Darling, give me a rope
I'll hang my self
It doesnt take a genius
To figure it out
Dont have to be fucking brilliant to see
Im not as smart as I seem to be
Im not as bright as I used to be
Im not as sharp as I think I am
Im not as smart as I seem
Im not as bright as I seem
