Tears fall from my face, they hit the ground and go boom

Nigga watch another youngsta lowered into the tomb
The good die young, you say it's all thy must
But he diiiiied - caught up in a cocaine bust
The door busted open he tried to run
Failed to realize that the cop had a gun
Off the trigger goes, he dropped from his pose
Hit the ground and his blood FLOWED, mom's are cryin

"Woman lose her head and cry" -> B. Marley

Mom's are cryin

"Cause her son, has been shot down in the streets and died" -> B.M.

Mom's are cryin

Tears of a mother, watchin her son die
Set-trippin somebody slippin, bullets zippin and Eligh gone for good, now his momma's livin
No need for cryin, not dyin, Eligh is dead
Point blank he took a nine cap to the head
Eligh, the wannabe gangsta from the hood
He wasn't that bad and he wasn't that good
All he understood is get crazy blitzed
So he bought some of that (uh) to get some of this

This got him that but that went to them and them, bein they who made his head lay
He didn't obey, he said he made this cash
CRACK from the gun, Eligh lays in ash
Smash, it hits the front page quick
Now business is conducted by this fool named Mick Mick, fell for a trick
Soon to be dyin, and his mom, gon' be cryin
