Hey girl
I got a game I wanna play with you
It's called house

From the first day that I met you
Know that your were independent
Always pushing up in ya own wip
Always payin' for all your own shit girl
Don't you know that it's all about you
Got it goin' on

And ever since we been together
Our life's been so much better
And for that I wanna thank you
Lord knows I appreciate you girl

Baby you are the truth
Girl you're so beautiful
The way I feel each time we kiss
If you only knew

Let's built a cottage
With a white picket fences
Maybe we'll have some children
After we'll settle down the two of us

Put down on everything
My car, my house, my name
If there's anything you ever need
Please don't hesitate

Come with me girl let's play house
You could be the mommy, let me be the daddy
I would be the perfect spouse
'Bout ready settle down and start a family

Come with me girl let's play house
You could be the mommy and I can be the daddy
I would be the perfect spouse
'Bout ready settle down

Here for the long run

This ain't no short turn
I still remain loyal to you
Even when your backs turned

Girl I am here to stay
Just like that dark stain
On your white carpet
I won't go away forever and a day

I'm so excited
And the temperature's rising
No need don't try to fight it
We should just realize that we're in love

Put that on everything
My car, my house, my name
If there's anything you ever need
Please don't hesitate

Come with me girl let's play house
Girl, you could be the mommy, I can be the daddy
I would be the perfect spouse
'Bout ready settle down and start a family now girl

Come with me girl let's play house
You could be the mom, I will be the daddy, girl
I would be the perfect spouse
'Bout ready settle down

Let me be the one you need
Loving you is necessary
Everybody needs a shoulder to cry on
And for you I'll be the one you rely on

Come with me girl let's play house
You can be the mommy and I can be the daddy
I would be the perfect spouse
'Bout ready settle down and start a family with ya baby

Come with me girl let's play house
I wanna come home and see how your days been going girl
I would be the perfect spouse
You see I'm 'bout ready settle down girl

Let me be the one you need, loving you is necessary
Let me be the one you need, loving you is necessary
Let me be the one you need, loving you is necessary
Let me be the one you need, loving you is necessary

[Incomprehensible] You know what I want you to do right now

I want you to put them blue high heels
Come here
