I heard the word, it's goin' all around town
Looks like your latest toy gone and put you down
Well, it won't be long 'fore you come crawling on home
Like some old dog with your tail on the ground

I'm listenin' to you beg and you plead
Don't fill my heart with no pity
What makes you think I'm gonna take you back again
I ain't your repo man, I ain't your repo man

Used to be just you and me
So young and in love like it was meant to be
It didn't take long 'fore I begin to see
That you got eyes for every man out on the street

I'm listenin' to you beg and you plead
Don't fill my heart with no pity
What makes you think I'm 'bout to take you back again
I ain't your repo man, I ain't your repo man
I ain't your repo man, I ain't no repo man

It's like you think I got revolvin' doors on my house
Like you can just come and go as you please
I'm 'bout to do what your daddy should've done
I'm gonna lay you right across my knee

I work like a devil every night and everyday
Bustin' my back just to make my pay
Now where is your woman, you ask while you work and you slave
'Cause as they say while the cat's away

I'm listenin' to you beg and you plead
Don't fill my heart with no pity
What makes you think I'm gonna take you back again
I ain't no repo man, I ain't your repo man
I ain't no repo man, I ain't your repo man
