You're wonderin' just what I'll do
Now that it's over and done
Well, that's something to think about
And I've already begun

I suppose that I'll find a way
People usually do
Well, it's something to think about
I'll be lost without you

One thing I would have you do
Please consider the dawn
The dawn of your lonelier years
When youth an' beauty are gone

And when you can no longer have
Any sweetheart that you choose
Here's something to think about
I'll still be thinking of you

One thing I would have you do
Please consider the dawn
The dawn of your lonelier years
When youth an' beauty are gone

And when you can no longer have
Any sweetheart you choose
Here's something to think about
I'll still be thinkin' of you
