It's been three days since we haven't talked i'm sitting in this room with all my memories blocked these thoughts are racing through my head you can just forget all the words i had said

now that it's over between me and you
there is nothing left for me to do
we can just go our separate ways
but remember this when i say

Chorus:

I don't expect you to want me
Don't expect you to hold me baby
I don't expect it
I don't expect you to love me
Don't expect you to care for me baby Just don't expect it from me

It's my mistake to think you were the one You stole my heart decided to take a run
I guess i was being just too naive I would've never expected for you to leave

there is nothing left for me to do
we can just go our separate ways
but remember this when i say

Chorus

This story is long and gone but i know that we'll both and try and move on Since there's no more you and me
I guess it's time for you to see

Chorus 2X
