

Ray Quinn

"Rats Don't Race"

Visit "Rats Don't Race" on MotoLyrics.com

Old Ronney's toteing shingles,
Up a ladder for Steve.
Well, Steve fixed Ronney's transmition last week.
Friday night will be spagetti,
Five dollers a plate,
To help get Curtis Right's doctor bills payed.
For every able bodied man is a fire department volunteer.
Rats don't race around here.

You got a thirty day credit,
At the hardware store.
You don't need a master card to buy a 2x4.
Saturday's for fishing,
Sunday's for church.
Here it ain't a carrer,
It's five days of work.
Trash man's a trash man,
Not a sanitation engineer.
Rats don't race around here.

There ain't no need to ride a bus into work each day,
Nobody's fighting for a parking place,
You might get passed on the road by an old John Deer.
But the rats don't race around here.

There ain't no need to ride a bus into work each day,
Nobody's fighting for a parking place,
You might get passed on the road by an old John Deer.
Somebody wins a trophy at the drag strip every year.
But the rats don't race around here.

Ya'll the rats don't race around here.
We like that domestic beer.

Visit Ray Quinn page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.