HOUSE OF THE HEART
(Ray Buttigieg)

Tell me thoughts
Tell me fears
That seems to confuse you,
Tell me wishes
Tell me dreams
Hide away your secrets.

I need to feel, I want to see..
I want to be free.

Don't let me go away from you
Don't let me leave and never return to
Never let me go
Don't let me leave and never return to
House of the heart.

Tell me thoughts
Tell me fears
That seems to confuse you
Tell me wishes, tell me dreams
That hides away your secrets.

I need to worry, I need to care..
I need to be aware.

Don't let me go away from you
Never let me go
Don't let me leave and never return to
House of the heart

House of the heart.
