Started out good [We started out so good]
To end up so bad [To end up so bad]
Where did we go wrong [Where did we go wrong]
What happened to the love we once had [And what happened to the love we Once had]
It's slowly slippin' away [I feel it slowly slippin' away]
How can we let it end [And how can we let it end]
This love was so right [When this love was so right]
From the beginning [From the beginning]

How can love so right be so wrong now
How can love so right be so wrong now

Thinking of yesterday
When love was in full bloom
The fires from our love
Could light up a room

But somewhere along the way
We made a jagged turn
The plans we both had
They're beginning to burn

How can love so right be so wrong now
How can love so right be so wrong now

How can a love so good turn out so bad
(So bad, so bad, so bad, yeah)
Tell me what happened to the love we once had (Once had, once had)
Too bad, so sad, too bad, whoa, how

How can love so right be so wrong now

One day your love is glad
The next day you end up sad
Ooh, babe, what a thin line
It's enough to drive you mad

One day our love was good and hot

Next day runnin' cold
One day we had a new love
But now it's old

How, how, how
How can love so right be so wrong now
How can love so right be so wrong now
How can love so right be so wrong now
How can love so right be so wrong now
How can love so right be so wrong now
How can love so right be so wrong now
How can love so right be so wrong now
