Me

Look in your hands
You can trust in me
Faith had it planned
Through the stars for us to see
Follow the signs
And you, yes you will surely find
Your luck line
Your heart line
Your love line leads to me

Your whole world turns
Like a spinning top
And in your palms
All are lines that never stop
They lead to a place
Connecting somewhere out in space
Take your time
Read the signs
And sure you'll find me

I know our paths have crossed
Though we have never met
Through time our stars were close together
Making a, a perfect set
Take your time
Read the signs
Then you'll find me

Take your time
Read the signs
And sure you'll find

Take your time
And sure you'll find

Take your time
Read the signs
And sure you'll find

Oh, I know our paths have crossed
Though we have never met
Through time our stars were close together
Making a, a perfect set
Take your time
Read the signs
Then you'll find me
