Remember me when I said I was okay
Remember me when I called you everyday Remember me when I looked for something new Remember me when I said "I love you too"

But the doors are all open now, the wind blows right through the house
And the price is still waiting to be paid
The only thing I always knew was that I wanted to share my life with you
Now you're here, oh well oh well oh well

You can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you want to my friend
You can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you try to my friend

Remember me when I went out every night
Remember me when I when I held your hand too tight
Remember me when I gave your dad a hug
Remember me when I tried a brand new drug

Our train is about to crash, it will all be gone in a flash
But the journey was over long ago
I remember our holiday and our late Sunday brunch buffet
And I remember someone saying something true

You can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you want to my friend
You can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you try to my friend

No, you can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you want to my friend
You can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you try to my friend

Now everything has passed us by ? don't ask me how, don't ask me why
We saw it all but didn't do a thing

Don't worry if you fail all you see here is on sale
And please buy something, it will ease the pain

You can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you want to my friend
You can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you try to my friend

No, you can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you want to my friend
You can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you try to my friend

No, you can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you want to my friend
You can never be that dumb again
No matter how much you try to my friend
