Sleep my darling won't you worry
I have to go now, I'm in a hurry
And yes there's a message from your father everything was aright no need to bother

But I must go because beauty of the stars cannot be seen from inside cars
and they say fish are swimming slower every year
And all around us there are people feeling ill
but there's no pain here left to kill
that's why I know I won't be coming home tonight

I saw a picture of us kissing we have a house now, where nothings missing And yes you were right about the weather snow is falling, sofa of leather

But I must go because beauty of the stars
cannot be seen from inside cars
and they say fish are swimming slower every year
And when I look around the only thing a see is people looking just like me
that's why I know I won't be coming home tonight

And when I smiled at you and said I loved you to
I really meant it, it was true
But the fish are swimming slower every year
that's why I know I won't be coming home tonight

Sleep my darling don't you worry
I have to go now, I'm in a hurry

I have to go because beauty of the stars
Cannot be seen from inside cars
And they say fish are swimming slower every year
And all these people reading travel magazines holding their breath ---?
while the fish are swimming slower every year

And I know I have to open up this doors because I'm aware there must be more and the fish are swimming slower every year
I have to go because beauty of the stars
Cannot be seen from inside cars
And they say fish are swimming slower every year

And when I smiled at you and said I loved you to
I really meant it, it was true
But the fish are swimming slower every year
