Chorus:

I can't believe it's true
I'm all alone and there's no more you
Nowadays the world's gettin colder
It's the only thang that I can't get over
Girl I thought u said, you'd never let me go
Even though I act crazy, your the one I love most
Now I know, what I shoulda already knew
How good I used to have it when I was with u

Verse 1:

When I was with you girl I didn't understand
I was acting so kiddish when I shoulda been a man
It was right in my face, still I couldn't realize
I was in a perfect place, having u on my side
I had all the chips, but couldn't play my cards right How'd I lose the one thing I've been searchin for all my life
Ever since you left it's like my heart went missing
For us to be together again is my main mission,
And it hurts me the most cuz it's all my fault
I went past many lines that I should have never crossed
Before I realized it, you were already gone
God damn, How'd I lose something I've already won
If I was told that this is how it ends, I woulda never guessed
How I've been actin lately, I could see why u left
Don't know why I didn't love you to my best ability
Hurts enough just knowing your no longer here with me

Chorus:

I can't believe it's true
I'm all alone and there's no more you
Nowadays the world's gettin colder
It's the only thang that I can't get over
Girl I thought u said, you'd never let me go
Even though I act crazy, your the one I love most
Now I know, what I shoulda already knew
How good I used to have it when I was with u

Verse 2:

Baby you were the hands that held up my world

But I was too busy puttin my hands on other girls
Shoulda listened to my heart, instead of what I hear
You were too good to be true, so I developed a fear
Always accusing you of thangs, I knew you'd never do
I guess it takes a loss, to realize the truth
Girl I ask myself, why did I do these things
We were so good together, the undefeated team
We were envyed by other couples, the talk of the town Somehow I forgot, and brought the whole building down
You know I didn't mean it, when I pushed you away
The last words you said to me, still haunts me til today
How u said that I was gonna be the one with regret
All the tears that I've cried, now that there's nothing left
You were the best I ever had, if only I knew it sooner
I'll let u be the winner, cuz I deserve to be the loser

Chorus:

I can't believe it's true
I'm all alone and there's no more you
Nowadays the world's gettin colder
It's the only thang that I can't get over
Girl I thought u said, you'd never let me go
Even though I act crazy, your the one I love most
Now I know, what I shoulda already knew
How good I used to have it when I was with u

Verse 3:

What you and I had, it was greater than the great
To think that one day, all this love could turn to hate
But we're all human beings, we all make mistakes
But only some of us can understand and make a change
I'm ready and willing, to do anything for you
No longer will our hearts be broken in 2
No matter how hard, I will find a way
Just to get back the I love yous and the how was ur days
I can't believe it's true
Now there's no more you
Why was I so blind
How'd I waste those times
Now I realize the truth
Why didn't I show you
When I was still with you...
