RBD - MY PHILOSOPHY
You know how you drive me
crazy
You know how I need you, baby I'm addicted to
you and you're feeling me too
Maybe, maybe, maybe
You know how you tease me, baby
How you make me
feel so hazy I'm spinning around 'cause you're telling me now
Maybe, maybe, maybe
My religion is the voice of your heart
Always looking for a meaningless sign My
religion is the voice of your heart I really need ya, don't let me down
Give me just a little chance Give me just a little time
I've been waiting so long All I need is your love
Give me just a little something Give me just a little chance
Give me just a little time I've been waiting so long
All I need is your love Give me just a little something
You are my philosophy My believes my everything
You are my philosophy
And I'm gonna get you
You know what I mean
You know how you drive me
crazy
You know how I need you, baby I'm addicted to
you and you're feeling me too
Maybe, maybe, maybe
You know how you tease me, baby
How you make me
feel so hazy
I'm spinning around 'cause you're telling
