I awoke this morning to a shattering sound
And I went downstairs and found these shards of glass strewn all around -- There upon the floor I found this poor broken dove
And it make me realize how very fragile is this life that we so love I came back up to bed and I held you so tight And I prayed up to the Father, Oh I prayed with all my might That he'd always keep you with me That he'd always keep you safe And when I went downstairs I found that dove had somehow up and flown away
There's magic every moment
There's miracles each day
There's magic every moment
Oh won't you let the music play?
Oh won't you let the music play?
On a high and windy island I was gazing out to sea
When a long forgotten feeling came and took control of me
It was then the clouds burst open and the sun came pouring through When it hit those dancing waters in an instant all eternity I knew There's so much we take for granted

There's so much we never say - we get caught up in the motion of just living day to day We are fettered to the future, we are prisoners of the past
And we never seem to notice 'til our lives have finally slipped right through our grasp
There's magic every moment
There's miracles each day
There's magic every moment
Oh won't you let the music play?
Oh won't you let the music play?
You can see forever in a single drop of dew

You can see that same forever if you look down deep inside of you There's a spark of the creator in every living thing
He respects me when I work but he so loves me when I sing
There's magic every moment
There's miracles each day
There's magic every moment
Oh won't you let the music play?
Oh won't you let the music play?
There's magic every moment
There's miracles each day
There's magic every moment
Oh won't you let the music play?
Oh won't you let the music play?
