You and I were lovers all along
We had a good thing going strong
And never doubted
Lately, I feel changes comin' on
I know that I will soon be gone
And you don't even want to talk about it

Oh, and it makes me stop and wonder why
People give their hearts and turn
Around and say goodbye
If there's something on your mind
You better say it while there's time
'Cause I'm leavin' when I see that morning sky

Oh, how did we ever come to this?
There's nothing for me in your kisses anymore
Late nights in the kitchen
I'm pretending I still care
But we both know there's nothing there
And you just keep on starin' at the door

Oh, and it makes me stop and wonder why
People give their hearts and turn
Around and say goodbye
If there's something on your mind
You better say it while there's time
'Cause I'm leavin' when I see that morning sky

Oh, and it makes me stop and wonder why
People give their hearts and turn
Around and say goodbye
If there's something on your mind
You better say it while there's time
'Cause I'm leavin' when I see that morning sky

You and I were lovers all along
We had a good thing going strong
And never doubted
Lately, I feel changes comin' on
I know that I will soon be gone
And you don't even want to talk about it

Oh, and it makes me stop and wonder why
People give their hearts and turn
Around and say goodbye
If there's something on your mind
You better say it while there's time
'Cause I'm leavin' when I see that morning sky
See that morning sky
