The sun is rising on you
A billion dreams just drift away
Above the stars are fading
A billion memories start today
Every day

Into my dreams, comes a vision of the light
I hear her voice, on my journey through the night

The sound is calling to me
Your song has echoes in my mind
I wish I'd never left you
The long way back is hard to find
Can it be forever?

Into my dreams, comes a vision of the light
I hear her voice, on my journey through the night
Into my dreams, comes a vision of the light
I hear her voice, on my journey through the night
