Visit "Free Me" on MotoLyrics.com

I patiently waited for Your face to appear
Not knowing when i'd find You here
I'm seeking the dream i've heard You share
Can You here me way up there
I'm calling out to You

Can You free me now
I have fallen down
It is time to see beyond these prison walls
That i have built around
All my selfish ground
Free me from this slavery to self

Your stillness upholding my trembling hand
You're giving the peace not found in any man
Encounter me, reveal Your plan
Lift me from the filth i am
