A title wave of confidence,
You and your baby are on the run,
Am I close to what you suffered,
or is my poison warming up...

As he walks by,
I'm tempted to take his,
Life with my knife,
And kill what I hated,

We're getting closer to Omniverse, You've taken all my plateaus and your gonna rip down my door,
Until your down on my floor, until you've broken my back,
Then you bumped into something, you know what I said,

Tell me, tell me what you want to,
Tell me what you want to do,
Tell me what you won't do
