We live like strangers, playing for time
Both of us reaching out for something
Hiding our feelings, afraid what we'll find
Someday I know we'll find the answer

It takes a little time
It doesn't really matter
Don't throw it all away
'Cause we're

One step from paradise
So close, but still so far away
One step from paradise
Together, we'll find paradise some day

Lost in the shadows
We search for a light
Hoping the candle
Burns forever

It takes a little time
It doesn't really matter
Don't let it slip away
'Cause we're

One step from paradise
So close, but still so far away
One step from paradise
Together, we'll find paradise some day

It takes a little time
It doesn't really matter
Don't let it slip away
'Cause we're

One step from paradise
So close, but still so far away
One step from paradise
Together, we'll find paradise some day

One step from paradise
So close, but still so far away

One step from paradise
Together, we'll find paradise some day

One step from paradise
Some day
Some day
One step from paradise
